Welcome to Kenotes

a publication for bars, taverns, restaurants and clubs selling the Ohio Lottery KENO game.

Spring, here we come! Pick up the pace and have some fun with Keno Mania, returning to Ohio Lottery retailers on men's tournament game days, March 17-April 3. As you prepare for college basketball playoffs, we'll help amp up the excitement.

From noon to midnight on tournament game days, any customers making a $20 single-ticket Keno purchase receive a 3-spot play good for three consecutive drawings. Check out the details and delivery schedule on page 5.

Time to let your customers know.

Bargos Grill & Tap, which has a location near the University of Dayton, is in the middle of college basketball action. Bargos is also one of the Lottery's outstanding Keno retailers. Learn more about the business on page 6.

Are your customers having fun with EZPLAY® progressive games, but want something more? Check out and post Quick Spot information on page 11. The progressive EZPLAY® Game with a $1, $5 and $10 price point option debuts Sunday, March 20. All play funds a progressive jackpot, starting at $10,000.

Last issue, we celebrated new Keno Million Dollar Club members from southern and central Ohio. This issue, you'll get a chance to see who made the list this past year from northern Ohio.

Keno bars, taverns, restaurants and clubs have had an outstanding year with Lottery games. As Keno continues to set records and grow, we know that players have caught on and so have you. Thank you for another stellar year.

Retailer Spotlight: Bargos Grill & Tap

Miamisburg-Centerville, Dayton

Bargos Grill & Tap opened its doors in March 2001. Its Miamisburg-Centerville location in Dayton is its flagship site. Bargos operates two restaurants in Dayton, including a second near the University of Dayton. Bargos has a site in Cincinnati and just recently opened its fourth grill and tap in Fairfield, which its owners built from the ground up.

Bargos became a licensed Ohio Lottery retailer during the Ohio Lottery's launch of Keno in 2008. It's in the top 1% of Keno retailers in the Dayton region.

"It's a casual, fun, friendly place to hang out," says owner Jamie Brink. To keep up with the area's growth and entertainment opportunities, Bargos added a covered, outdoor patio in 2014.

Owners: Brett Corwin, Joe Nicholson Jr., Jamie Brink.

The Bargos on Miamisburg-Centerville Road is close to the Dayton mall, bringing in patrons from around the area, including employees and customers of a car dealership next store.

Bargos has an area set aside for its MP vending machine, where customers can purchase Keno and other Ohio Lottery games. That's made business at the Miamisburg-Centerville location manageable for manager Kristen Lemon and her staff. The area is being reconfigured for future growth.

"Keno is by far our number one seller," she says of Lottery. "We have customers who come in daily to play, watch sports, play Keno."

Kristen has worked at both the Dayton and Cincinnati locations. This one is her favorite.

"It's a great place to work. It's a family," says Kristen. "I've always been very lucky. For the most part, there's very little turnover."

Kristen, an industry veteran, works with a crew of 15 and has been employed with Bargos for the past 13 years. She knows her regulars and enjoys them. As a group, her customers often tend to play together too.

“Truly, I believe when people play, they’re winning. It’s a real community here.”

Story contributors: Sales representative Maria Tharp and Douglas Osten.

The FY15 Class of the KENO Million Dollar Club

This past year, 185 retailers reached the $1-million mark in Keno sales since joining the Ohio Lottery. This issue, we're recognizing the bars, taverns, restaurants and clubs in northern Ohio that have reached that benchmark. Congratulations!
