In compliance with Ohio Revised Code (ORC) Chapter 119, Administrative Procedures Act, the Ohio Lottery Commission (the Lottery) will not make a final adjudication order on the issue of a Lottery Retailer Sales License suspension, revocation or the denial of an application for such license without the opportunity for a hearing. If you have received a Notice of Suspension or Revocation of your Lottery Retailer Sales License or a Notice of Denial of an Application for a Lottery Retailer Sales License, you are entitled to an Adjudication Hearing if you make a written request for a Hearing within thirty (30) days of receiving your Notice. The Hearing will be held on the issue of whether the Lottery is justified in suspending or revoking your Lottery Retailer Sales License or denying your Application. The Hearing will be conducted by an impartial Hearing Officer designated by the Director of the Lottery and will comply with the requirements for Adjudication Hearings set forth in the Administrative Procedures Act.

Prior to your Hearing

You will receive a written Notice from the Lottery of your hearing date and the time when you are scheduled for an Adjudication Hearing regarding your License or Application for a License. What to Expect at your Hearing

You should make every effort to be present at the Hearing. If your Lottery Retailer Sales License is held by an individual, you do not need an attorney; it is your decision whether to have an attorney represent you. However, if your Lottery Retailer Sales License is held by a corporation, partnership, LLC, or any type of entity formed under Title 17 of the ORC, that entity must be represented by an attorney licensed or otherwise permitted to practice law in the State of Ohio, in order to participate in the Hearing. You may bring witness(es) to your Hearing, and the witness(es) may choose to have an attorney or not, but cannot be represented by your same attorney, if you have one. You may bring exhibits to present at the Hearing, but if you do, it will be your responsibility to authenticate them.

At the Hearing, a stenographic record of the testimony and other evidence submitted will be taken by a court reporter. This record will include all of the testimony and other evidence, and rulings on the admissibility thereof, presented at the Hearing. All witnesses will be sworn in at the beginning of the Hearing and testify under oath. The Lottery will present evidence and testimony to support its position. You may do the same to support your position, which includes presenting evidence on your behalf and examining and/or cross-examining witnesses who may appear for or against you. If you choose not to be present, you may present your position, argument, and contentions in writing to the address above.
